

Effect of the introduction of the two polio vaccines in the US

The heat map represents a visualization of the positive cases of Polio in the USA during the years 1928 and 1971 for the three existing virus types (Nonparalytic poliomyelitis, Paralytic poliomyelitis, poliomyelitis), where the decrease of positive cases due to the introduction of the two vaccines can be clearly seen.

